Board of Trade building by St. John's Academy are in progress. The property is held for $60,000. If the Catholic institution take the old building and site off the Board of Trade's hands then the new building will be built across the street.

St. John's Academy, which is located just east of the Board of Trade, owns all the quarter block in which the Board of Trade is located, save the Board of Trade's property. The institution is averse to having a | Monday $16,390 tall business building constructed at the side of its building and has made a proposition to the Board of Trade looking to the Friday 12,950 purchase of this property.

Albert Metzger, acting for the Board of Trade, has secured options on the two lots at the northwest corner of Capitol and Kentucky avenues and Maryland street, and if the St. John's Academy buys the old property the new building will be built on the opposite corner.

The two lots at the northwest corner of Capitol and Kentucky avenues and Mary-land street on which the Board of Trade has options are owned by Jacob C. Yuncker Albert Metzger says the majority of the members of the Board of Trade who are taking an active interest in the new building project favor selling the old property and putting the building up on the oppoat the southwest corner it will have several advantages of location over a new building on the present site.

Perry. president of the Board of Trade. The Van Camp Hardware and Iron Company will put up a building to cost $200,000, or nearly that amount, at the southwest corner of Maryland and Missouri streets. Schnull & Co.'s new building will be located at the southeast corner of Maryland and Missouri streets. The Gardner building will be located on the north side of Maryland street, between Senate and Capitol avenues. Mr. Perry will build a large building on Kentucky avenue, running through to Maryland street, in the block just south of Washington street. The building will be occupied by a theater.
